

MICROSOFT DYNAMICS MIGRATION SERVICES

With the confirmed end of lifecycle and extended support dates for Microsoft Dynamics NAV, GP and SL, it's time for organizations to plan their migration to Dynamics 365 Business Central.

Migrating from a seemingly functional ERP system may seem daunting, but Microsoft is no longer investing in these older platforms, so why should you?

Without the latest updates, AI, or automation capabilities, the security and value of these platforms diminishes, directly impacting your data, people and revenue—the very resources ERP platforms are meant to conserve.

The Value of Migrating to Dynamics 365 Business Central

Upgrading to Dynamics 365 Business Central yields many benefits. A recent Forrester study shared the cost savings and business impact of migrating, which included:

- » $44K savings in third-party reporting spend over three years
- » < one-year payback
- » 10% operations productivity increase
- » 162% ROI over three years
- » 8% average in improved flow of operations
- » Avoidance of one full-time equivalent and one part-time equivalent finance and operations hires
